

Documentary Sections and Ideas (You are encouraged to come up with additional questions to answer based on what you have learned)

- Introduction: How will you engage your audience? Can you start with a quote, poem, or story? Why is it important that your generation take action?
- Introduce Joan: How will you introduce Joan? What are important facts to share about her?
- Education: Why is education important? How can an educated person change the world? How does education help improve the economy?
- Education For All Children Facts: What is EFAC's mission? Why does EFAC work in Kenya? How much does it cost to go to school in Kenya? Why is scholarship aide important in Kenya?
- Proposal: What is the purpose of your proposal? Why are you making this proposal? How will you present your idea? What can you do? How can you make a difference? What is your idea? How will you execute your plan? Who does this impact? What is the cost? What is your timeframe?
- Conclusion: How can you create a powerful closing? How will you make your audience remember you? An inspirational summary of the documentary might help your audience reflect.